Dear Mr Robb:

I am in receipt of your letter of May 23rd, asking about the order for white uniforms for The Eagles.

The reason you had not heard from me was due to the fact I was waiting to hear from Mr Reilly about material etc. I had a letter from Mr Reilly this morning telling me he had been sick. From his letter I judge the material he is planing to give us is not pure wool. I would like to have a sample of the goods if possible.

The jackets have not been located yet. Isn't that too bad. I had a letter from Mr Elligot saying they were trying to locate them, and asking if I wanted another set made. I think I should wait a little longer for a report from the express Co.

I will appreciate a sample of the material for the suits Mr Reilly wrote me about.

Very Truly Yours
